

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY TRAINING COURSES

INSTRUCTOR-LED - FACILITATED ON-SITE

Health and Safety and The Law: Due Diligence and Compliance in Ontario

Get a better understanding about the Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA), the OHS Regulations, and the concept of The Internal Responsibility System.

The OHSA sets out duties for all workplace parties and rights for workers. It establishes procedures for dealing with workplace hazards and provides details for enforcement of the law where compliance has not been achieved voluntarily.

The OHSA applies to almost every worker, supervisor, employer and workplace in Ontario, including workplace owners, constructors and suppliers of equipment or materials to workplaces covered by the Act.
